Summer 2012

Rachael Sage, the internationally known recording artist, releases her 10th album in May of 2012. She is a born performer, a poet, a producer, an artist and an entrepreneur.

“Genuine talent...Sage has a knack for writing melodies that will break your heart...where there’s poignancy there is also subtlety, unforced passion and knowing observation.”

- RollingStone.com

Rachael’s latest album, titled Haunted By You features melodies that seductively portray the passion of falling in and out of love. Not only is it evident that she has poured her emotions into this latest album, the tracks feature her sweet endearing voice that radiates through your soul. The acoustic guitar-based track “Everything” celebrates the shameless joy of a new attraction, “when all you can see is shimmering possibility.”

Currently on tour to promote her latest album, Rachael has become one of the busiest touring artists in independent music, performing 150+ dates a year throughout the US, UK, Europe and Asia. Along with her busy performance schedule, she is an accomplished business woman who finds the time to manage her successful label MPress Records. Not to mention, coordinating the MPress Records charity fundraisers, which support the National Network for Youth (NN4Y). She has gathered artists from all over the nation to create the latest New Arrivals: Vol. 4 CD, loaded with over 20 songs. Sales from the CD benefit the NN4Y organization. Rachael tells us: “Over 1.6 million youths, aged 12-17, sleep on the street annually. I had no idea that over half of all homeless youth have been kicked out of their homes, or that almost an equal amount have been sexually abused. Homeless youth are less visible, but the problem is staggering.” To purchase your copy of the CD or attend the next benefit concert, click to newarrivalscd.com.

responsibility, but an opportunity.

- Rachael Sage

As an advocate for equality and an OUT bisexual performer, Rachael tells us: “the LGBT community has been very accepting throughout my career.” Rachael shares that she has been in love with men and women an equal amount in her life. She continues: “I am open about who I am and how I live. It’s an exciting time to be queer and I believe our society is hungry for it.”

With her energetic heart of gold, Rachael has become a wonderful role model, not only in the gay community, but in every community that has a longing to make a difference and spread positive energy and harmonious music.
