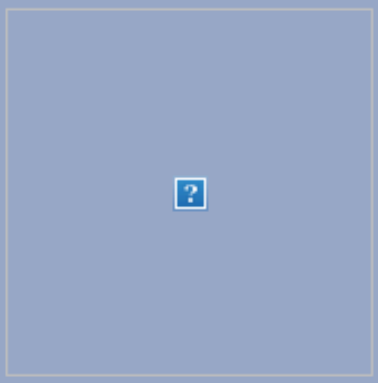
Rachael Sage



The Blistering Sun

Release Year: 2005
Label: Mpress Records
Country: USA
Produced by Rachael Sage

Musicians:
Rachael Sage: Vocal, Piano, Wurly, Mellotron, Electric Harpsichord, Celeste
Ben Butler, Jack Petruzelli: Guitars
Jeff Allen, Conrad Korsch: Bass
Todd Sickafoose: Bass, Percussion
Julie Wolf: Organ
Rob Curton: Organ, Accordion
Doug Yowell, Dean Sharp: Drums
Marianne Osiel: Oboe, Flute
Russ Johnson: Trumpet, Flugelhorn
Allison Cornell: Viola, Violin
Julia Kent, Dave Eggar: Cello
Edie Carey: Background Vocals

Tracklist:

1. Alright, OK
2. Featherwoman [redacted] (1 Minute soundsample)
3. 93 Maidens
4. Wildflower [redacted] (1 Minute soundsample)
5. Violet Of Blue
6. Lonely Streets
7. Older
8. Hit Song
9. Burning Witch
10. Paperplane
11. Proof
12. Surprise
13. Anything Anywhere
14. C'mon Over
15. Calypso

Your comments about this record:

CG wrote:

The Blistering Sun is a dazzling piece of art and musicianship. Each song is a finely woven story - intricate, beautiful, and detailed. If you like Marc Cohen, Ani DiFranco, Carole King, or any of the real deal story teller songwriters - you will go crazy for Rachael's music. Each Rachael Sage release is a gift - a novel of entrenched beauty. The song "93 Maidens" on "The Blistering Sun" is a classic - a holocaust tale so heart wrenching it will haunt your dreams (or your ipod) for months... a mix tape must.